- Six Days in June – Director

A 2 hours film (2X50) 107 min feature length

The shooting lasted only six tense days in June 1967, but the June War has never really ended. Every crisis that has ripped through this region in the ensuing decades, from the Jordanian Palestinian Civil war in 1970, the 1972

, the October 1973 War, the Lebanon War, the Oslo peace talks, the Camp David accords, the current Intifada - all flow from those fateful six days. The film will mold immense archival material, re enactment and interviews shot in Moscow, Washington, London, Paris, Amman , Tel Aviv, Cairo and Damascus into a riveting narrative and a political thriller
A co production of Alma Films, Point du jour , Instinct films for WGBH (US) ARTE (France) Channel 10 (Israel), Radio Canada (Canada)
